

Programme on Intercultural Conflicts and Societal Integration (AKI)
“Ethnic Segregation in Germany and Europe: What do we know about its extent and about links between residential segregation and integration?”

Workshop

Friday, 31 March 2006

Social Science Research Center (WZB), room B 002

Preliminary Programme (Jan. 2006)

A conference dinner will be held on Thursday, 30 March, at 19:30. We shall send information about the location in due course.

Friday, 31 March 2006

9.00 Introduction (Hartmut Häußermann/Karen Schönwälder): Hypotheses and Main Questions of the Sixth AKI Research Review on “Ethnic Segregation in Germany”

Residential segregation by ethnicity and immigrant background and its impact on integration processes: the evidence for selected European countries

9.45 Sako Musterd: The Netherlands

Questions and discussion

10:45 Coffee break

11.15 Ceri Peach: The United Kingdom

Roger Andersson: Sweden

Questions and discussion

13:15 Lunch

Ethnic segregation in Germany

14.15 Jürgen Friedrichs: Social Segregation in German Cities: Results of a DFG-Project

14:45 AKI: The Extent and Shape of Ethnic Segregation in Germany

Anita Drever: What do Segregation Indices tell us about Integration and Segregation? (brief comment)

Discussion

15:45 Coffee break

16:15 Dietrich Oberwittler: The Impact of Ethnic Segregation on Children and Adolescents. Research on Neighbourhood Effects and Results of an MPI Study

Discussant: Bernhard Nauck

17:15 Andreas Farwick: Segregation and Integration of Migrants in Socially Disadvantaged Neighbourhoods

General discussion

[The conference will end at about 18:00]